	Derbyshire Police need to know if there is an incident of hate crime. It is thought that only 1 in 4 people report hate incidents There are lots of ways to report a hate incident that happened to you or someone else - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ In person to a community support officer or a police officer ◆ In person at a police station ◆ Online through report-it.org.uk ◆ By phoning 101 or 999 ◆ By phoning Stop Hate UK on 0800 138 1652
	Martin said that the 101 service recently helped with a problem at a local day centre
	There was a discussion about the Care Card. Having a Care Card means that some details about you go on the police system so that if you call, they know you have a learning disability or other information you want them to know. This is to help them communicate and work with you in the best way possible	Get a care card here: https://www.derbyshire.police.uk/contact/af/contact-us/us/contact-us/derbys/care-card-registration-form/
